There was a resolu in last L.C. Session that the restriction against women standing for election shd be removed I moved this proposed the was accepted by Govt. but the resolu did not come up The reforms mght not

There is no provision in the Regn to prevent nomination of ladies as Dist Board members I wd propose one place in all the Dist Boards being kept unfilled, & DCs being asked to nominate a lady, preferably a Social worker who cd be entrusted with Rural Child welfare work or similar functions in the Sabha if no such lady is willing to serve the lady Doctor might be nominated

Orders might issue, Dewan & 2nd M. agree. Unless this is done now there will be no chance for 3 years

By the Proclamation of the 27th October 1923 the franchise of voting for elections to the Representative Assembly and Legislative Council was extended to women possessing the qualifications prescribed for voters. But they were granted the privilege of standing as candidates.

At the last meeting of the Legislative Council of a resolution for removing this disqualification was given by Messrs. Mahomed Abbas Khan, G. Paramasiviah and D S Mallappa and it was tabled as No.27 in the agenda but could not be taken up for want of time. The resolution was as follows

"This Council recommends to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja that sex disqualification be removed so as to render women eligible for election to the Representative Assembly and the Legislative Council

Government had also decided to accept the resolution but the same was not reached
